942-24½82-New. Statute providing that arguments for and against bills referred to people by legislature, shall be filed and printed "in same manner," does not mean within same time as limited time for filing arguments for and against measures proposed by people. 148 Wash445, 269P818.

942-24½83-New. Under Washington statute, authorizing arguments advocating proposed measure or referendum to be filed with secretary of state within ten days after referendum petition, and arguments opposing measure to be filed within twenty days after petition, ten- and twenty-day limitation for filing arguments relates only to initiative and referendum measures proposed by voters and not to referendum measures proposed by legislature. 148Wash445, 269 P818.

942-24½84-New. Ten- and twenty-day limitation after referendum petition for filing arguments for or against measures proposed by voters, is manifestly unreasonably short for proposals made by legislature, and hence should not be sanctioned, in absence of express legislative declaration to that effect. 148 Wash445, 269P818.

Subrogation § 17, Mortgagee held entitled to subrogation to first mortgage lien and municipal tax liens paid by it; so far as mortgage lienor was subrogated to first mortgage and municipal tax liens paid by it, its lien was prior to mechanic's lien. Mortgagors, on May 5, 1927, executed and delivered to complainant a real estate mortgage to secure payment of the sum of $8,500, which by agreement between the mortgagors, complainant, and a party having an existing second mortgage lien, was applied to the payment of an existing first mortgage lien then in default and about to be foreclosed, and to the payment of municipal tax liens. It was agreed that complainant's mortgage should be a first lien. Shortly prior thereto the mortgagors contracted for the erection of a garage upon the rear part of the mortgaged premises. On May 14, 1927, complainant caused to be canceled of record the first mortgage lien which it had satisfied, and caused the municipal tax liens to be discharged, and recorded its aforesaid second mortgage. On August 23, 1927, the contractor who erected the garage filed a mechanic's lien and instituted a suit thereon for work done and materials furnished in the construction of said garage, for which priority is claimed over that of said mortgages. Complainant, in examining mortgagors' title, failed to inspect the mortgaged premises, and thus failed to ascertain that a garage was being erected thereon. Held: Complainant is entitled to subrogation to the rights of the first mortgagee whose mortgage lien it paid, and to the rights of the city of Jersey City for municipal tax liens paid, to the extent of the moneys paid on account of said mortgage and tax liens. To that amount, with interest, complainant's lien is prior to that of the mechanic's lien claimant. 150SC75, 147SE 752; TexCommnA 18W(2d)857; Tex CivA 299SW917; 191Wis602, 211NW 795; 20SaskL564, [1926] 3DomLR261, [1926] 2WestWkly385. Right extends to judgment lienholders.-38Wyo 515, 269P45, 60ALR418. In New Jersey.-Ch 147A809. Bank loaning money on third mortgage to pay first mortgage has been subrogated to borrower's rights on redemption. 221Ala683, 130S323. Effect of cancellation of first mortgage.-221Ala683, 130S323.
